Canadian Society for Exercise Physiology CSEP Policy Statement Regarding Advertisements/Sponsorships

The Canadian Society for Exercise Physiology is committed to maintaining the integrity of the organization. All advertising materials submitted to the Canadian Society for Exercise Physiology will be closely reviewed prior to acceptance. The acceptance of all advertising materials and/or sponsorships is at the sole discretion of the Canadian Society for Exercise Physiology. Individuals and/or organizations placing advertisements on www.csep.ca or providing sponsorships must agree to the following terms and conditions:

Terms

1. The advertising/sponsorship rates established by the Canadian Society for Exercise Physiology may change without notice.
2. Refunds will be provided at the discretion of the Canadian Society for Exercise Physiology

Conditions

1. It is the responsibility of advertisers/sponsors to ensure that advertisements comply with the Code of Conduct of the Canadian Society for Exercise Physiology.
2. The advertiser/sponsor indemnifies the Canadian Society for Exercise Physiology against all claims, actions, suits, liabilities, costs and expenses incurred as a result of placing an advertisement on www.csep.ca or contracting a sponsorship.
3. All job advertisements posted on the Canadian Society for Exercise Physiology that involve work related to personal training, and clinical exercise physiology and rehabilitation must include appropriate reference to certifications provided by the Canadian Society for Exercise Physiology (including the CSEP-Certified Personal Trainer™, and the CSEP-Certified Exercise Physiologist™).
4. The final decision concerning the suitability of advertisements/sponsorships for publication on www.csep.ca or otherwise is at the sole discretion of the Canadian Society for Exercise Physiology.
5. The advertiser/sponsor must ensure the accuracy of all advertisements placed on www.csep.ca or otherwise. The Canadian Society for Exercise Physiology accepts no responsibility or liability for any errors present in advertisements. It is the responsibility of the advertiser/sponsor to review their advertisements for errors as soon as they are placed on www.csep.ca or elsewhere.
6. The Canadian Society for Exercise Physiology reserves the right to edit, reject or remove any advertisement from its site or elsewhere for any reason whatsoever.
7. The advertiser/sponsor agrees to abide by all applicable laws of the region in which they conduct their business, or of any other relevant jurisdiction (including, without limitation, privacy and copyright laws).
8. Advertisers/sponsors must provide information that is current and correct. Advertisers/sponsors may place advertisements for permanent positions only if they have permission to do so from the sponsoring organization.
9. This agreement is governed by the laws of Canada.
